

Active Deditation

Once the major dictatorships have gone democratic, the world democratic community, can then take out the last stragglng little dictatorships militarily, with overwhelming technological superiority.

zz