Deistic Maximalism

DM is the idea that a deity takes mathematical principles (which preexist it) and designs a universe that exemplifies concrete examples of the largest instance of a classification of mathematical types, e.g. E8 of the semisimple Lie algebras,