

Devaluing Wealth

The sages look down on money men, as inferior creatures. The sages are concerned with higher things in life, the life of the mind, not mere material “stuff” that preoccupies the little minds of little people. Promoting sage values will lower the thrust towards material wealth.