

The Global Warming Blessing

Prof. Dr. Hugo de Garis

profhugodegaris@yahoo.com
<http://profhugodegaris.wordpress.com>

Abstract

Most predictions of future consequences of global warming are negative, but there may be some very significant positive consequences as well, namely the vast regions of northern Canada, Greenland and northern Russia will open up for habitation and cultivation. Once the chaos and the mass movements of populations have settled, on balance, global warming might be seen by future historians to have been a good thing.